

Teacher of Science

Job Description

To teach science in the school across KS3-5. The specific science (Biology, Chemistry or Physics) at KS5 and other potential responsibilities dependent on ability and experience. General responsibilities are:

1. To contribute to curriculum planning and development of the science curriculum.
2. To participate in the development of new teaching/learning strategies.
3. To contribute to the development and organisation of science resources.
4. To keep accurate records of student assessment and progression as part of our student tracking process.
5. To attend meetings of the Department or those related to particular courses.
6. To take part in other activities commensurate with the post.

Person Specification

1. Qualified teacher status.
2. Experience of teaching.
3. Evidence of professional development.
4. A thorough grasp of current curriculum issues in science.
5. A commitment to teamwork within the science department
6. A commitment to the ethos and values of Swakeleys School.
7. A sensitivity to the social/cultural context in which the school operates.
8. Tact, a sense of humour and a willingness to work hard.